

Advance notice of forthcoming Oceanian Apostolic Congress on Mercy (OACOM)

This important event is set down for February 20-28 2016 in Auckland.

See over the page for the proposed itinerary.

The congress is open to all, you do not need to be currently involved in the Divine Mercy movement to attend as the message of Mercy is one to which all Catholics, Christians, and indeed, all humanity is called. How we need to give and receive mercy!

"I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy." Diary of St Faustina No. 687

We are all called to be apostles and secretaries of the Mercy of God

Confirmed speakers at this event are:

Fr. Patrice Chocholski, Secretary General for WACOM

Bishop Pat Dunn, Bishop of Auckland

Bishop Martin Uzoukwu, Bishop of Minna Diocese, Nigeria

Fr. Andrew Grace, Diocesan priest, Queensland, Australia

Mr John Cananvan MC, Melbourne, Australia. Other speakers to follow.

Would you also consider a gift donation to Divine Mercy to help cover the very large costs of running this congress? Perhaps you could make this your Lenten offering? We have urgent needs to promote this event as well as meet the costs of airfares for the speakers and advertising as well as venue costs. Can you help us? Donation can be mailed to Divine Mercy PO Box 20266 Christchurch 8543 or paid directly to Divine Mercy Westpac Merivale Christchurch A/c 03 1707 0041871 017 (make your name the reference and note that it is for OACOM)

Mark this event in your diaries now, this is a landmark event for New Zealand and we hope and pray for the largest possible attendance among the bishops, priests, religious and faithful around New Zealand and Oceania.

More information will be made available soon.
